The best way to get to Karlsruhe from the Frankfurt airport is to take a long-distance train (the station is called 'Fernbahnhof'). The long-distance train station is just opposite terminal 1.

There are many signs directing you from the terminal to the station. They lead you to either an overpass or underpass of the road in front of the terminal.

Tickets may be purchased on the same day from:

1. A ticket counter in the hallway to the station after crossing over/under the road (about 1/2 way down the hallway, passing a small coffee bar)
2. Automated ticket machines in the station (they accept cash & credit cards)
3. The conductor on the train (there may be an extra charge ... but if a train is departing and you don't have time pre-purchasing it - do it).
4. Or: buy on-line and pre-print your ticket. Register here:

The trains are ICE's (Inter City Express). They depart from track (Gleis) 5 and the journey is less than 1 hour. You may have a stop over and change in Mannheim (half the distance).

Once arrived in Karlsruhe, I recommend taking a taxi to the hotel.
